

Change for HOPE

Survival rates for children with cancer in the developing world is around 80%. However in developing countries survival rates can be as low as 10%.

Together we can even the odds.

TIME FOR CHANGE

How to get involved?

Each student collects spare change at home in an old jam jar and returns it at the end of the school term/year.

World Child Cancer
No child should suffer

Worldchildcancer.org Follow us

Registered charity in England and Wales no. 1084729

